The little girl and her mother are hungry. They have no food.

The little girl cries because she is hungry.

An old woman gives the little girl a magic cooking pot.

The little girl thanks the old woman for the magic cooking pot.

The little girl shows her mother the magic cooking pot.

The little girl and her mother eat porridge together.

The little girl goes outside to play.

The mother makes porridge in the magic cooking pot. She forgets the magic words.

The pot makes too much porridge.

The little girl comes back and says the magic words.

The pot stops cooking, and everyone is happy again.
